

CHAPTER 2: The Revelatory Breakdown

“Fear ye not, neither be afraid: have not I told thee from that time, and have declared it? ye are even my witnesses. Is there a God beside me? yea, there is no God: I know not any?” Isaiah 44:8

In this chapter, a breakdown of the twenty-two chapters of the Book of Revelation will be given. Each chapter shall be divided into several groups of verses. Each group of verses will comprise either a vision, revelation, sign, wonder, and/or mystery. Each “vision or revelation” will be titled for simplicity’s sake; and while each “vision” will be listed separately, they are all still related.

To follow this breakdown more closely, one may want to subdivide the corresponding chapters of one’s Bible to get a better picture of this revelatory model.

The Book of Revelation is not “of John,” but it is to John. It is of Jesus Christ (Rev.1:1). The Book is not a book, but is a book through binding. It is a biblion (Gk.)(scroll) of the prophecy (Rev.22:19). It is not a book comparable to a novel whose literary purpose may be achieved after a single read. Neither is it a historical work whose understanding comes from men (I Corinthians 1:27 & 2:1 and II Peter 1:21), but it is a spiritual work (Rev.1:10) whose understanding comes through Christ.

This is key to all understanding. For The Revelation of Jesus Christ is a testament of his power (Rev.1:12-18, 3:21, 5:4-6, 6:15-17, 7:13-17, 11:15, 12:10-11, 14:14-16, 17:14, 19:19-21, 20:6, 21:22 & 22:12-13). With this in mind, the revelatory breakdown will now be given.
